

Banhoek Chilli Oil Launches Its Taste Kitchen

Banhoek Chilli Oil (BCO) recently launched its Taste Kitchen. Situated in the heart of the Banhoek Valley, it offers a great reason to stop for breakfast or lunch, a tutored oil tasting or to stock up on some kitchen essentials.

From breakfast classics with a little added pizzazz to light lunches, a delicious offering of seafood tapas, wholesome salads and their crowd-pleaser pizza and pasta dishes, guests to the BCO Taste Kitchen can expect a relaxed, welcoming environment with both indoor and outdoor dining areas, direct access and permits to the famed mountain bike trails of the Banhoek Conservancy and a family-friendly setting (complete with children's play area) for all-day foodie fun.

Learn more about the product with the 'perfect bite of flavour' during an interactive BCO oil tasting and a tour of the production space. From humble origins in the founder's kitchen and garage, this is the ultimate 'side hustle' turned success story!

BCO's business is structured to uplift the surrounding community by employing locals, wherever possible, to grow, tend, harvest and sun-dry the chillies - earning them year-round income.

Founders, Ken Kinsey-Quick and Adi Meintjes initially set out to create their own premium oil; testing and trialling dozens of variations of chillies, oils and production methods until they got it just right. Fast-forward a few years and they now have an incredible production facility (designed by Alma Mentz from Mentz Studio Architects), 'Taste Kitchen' space to sample dishes that compliment Banhoek Chilli Oil, and have won the coveted 'Great Taste Award' of the Guild of Fine Food, the world's largest and most trusted food accreditation body. Additionally, BCO has launched in over 500 stores in South Africa and seven countries abroad. Not bad going!

The Banhoek Chilli Oil Taste Kitchen is open Monday to Sunday from 09h00 to 16h00 on weekdays and 09h00 to 21h00 on weekends. Find the menu on their website and book via Dineplan. Walk-ins are welcome too.
